

Gil Derouins Honor Couple At Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Derouin entertained at a reception Sunday afternoon from 1 until 5 p.m. at their home 1625 Beech Ave., honoring their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Dalcide Derouin, who were married in Paris, France, April 27, 1963. For the party, the bride, the former Jeannine E. Boggia of Salon, France, wore a gown of blue silk and lace and a white orchid corsage.

The Derouin home and gardens were beautifully decorated in white floral arrangements, the work of Mrs. Victor Benstead, life-long friend of the family.

A tiered wedding cake centered a table in the gardens and was served with punch from silver and crystal services.

To introduce her future daughter-in-law to her Torrance friends, Mrs. Joseph Lucas entertained at a shower at her home on Thursday evening.

Games were played followed by the opening of gifts. A beautifully decorated bridal cake, which centered the dining table, was served with other refreshments. Assisting the hostess were Misses Karen Lucas, Marianne Marek and Dona Viker.

Invited to the party were Mmes Thomas Murphy, Mike Catena, Phil Keyes, Sam Estes, Sam Tomas, Frank Cunningham, Kenneth Cunningham, Mike Orend, Bob Faren.

Others were Mmes. Homer Morgan, Ross Wilcox, Lyle O'Hara, John Bennett, Cyril Duncan, William Hardesty, James Catena, William Hartley, W. Elmore, John Morgan and Miss Sharon Murphy.

Legion Auxiliary Unit Has Membership Dinner

Bert S. Crossland Unit 170, American Legion Auxiliary, held its annual membership dinner Tuesday evening at its hall on Border Avenue with 40 persons attending.

After the dinner, Mrs. Tania Grobowski, president, conducted the meeting and introduced two distinguished guests, Eva Kandler of Pico-Rivera, 19th district president, and Sylvia Grier, first vice president and 19th district membership chairman.

Two new members were initiated, Margaret Bradley and Laura Franjois. The initiation was conducted by a team of past presidents headed by Mrs. R. S. Sleeth. Assisting her were Mmes. Mary Harder, Alice Thompson, Ella Robinson, Ethel Sears, Clara Conner, Alma Smith and Miss Corlista Reeve.

Mrs. Bea Burchett, at the piano, played the background music during the ceremony. Mrs. Burchett also sang "Thanks Be To God," "Brown Bird Singing" and "Wind Song."

Mrs. Ruth Hines, membership chairman, reported that the unit now has 78 members.

Family Visits

Mrs. Catherine Dowling of San Fernando Valley and Patrick O'Hara of Seattle, Wash. are here visiting their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle O'Hara and family on Fern Ave. Sunday guests at the O'Hara home were Mr. O'Hara's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Petersen of Los Angeles.

Add 1,000 Books

Mr. and Mrs. J. Weare Pearson, co-chairman of the recent Marymount College Book Fair held on the Palos Verdes Peninsula, report that proceeds from the better-than-ever annual function resulted in the addition of over 1,000 volumes to the college library.

Meet Wednesday
